

DON B. GILLIES RETURNS AFTER TWO YEARS' ABSENCE

HALF OF HIS TIME WHILE ABSENT SPENT IN HOSPITALS.

Donald B. Gillies, former general manager of the Montana Tonopah, and president of the Tonopah Extension and Montgomery Shoshone, having resigned from the latter companies, so that he would be able to devote his time to the San Toy company at Chihuahua, Mexico, of which company he is president, arrived in Tonopah Sunday evening after an absence of nearly two years.

Mr. Gillies is in excellent health and has regained his old time appearance. During his absence he has spent eleven months in hospitals. First he suffered from an attack of appendicitis and upon recovering contracted typhoid fever. His visit is solely for the purpose of looking after his interests in this camp, and after a stay of a week or so will return to Mexico. He was greatly enthused yesterday over the rejuvenated appearance of Tonopah, and spoke in an optimistic tone regarding the different properties with which he is acquainted.

Don Gillies has a host of friends in this district and he has been kept busy accepting the congratulations on his speedy return to health.

EASTER WAS A BAD DAY FOR THE CHANTECLER HAT

NEW SPRING BONNET PARADE CALLED OFF BY THE WEATHER.

Curses. Not the loud, coarse, profane curses as indulged in by mankind, but real gentle, angry exclamations as can only be uttered by the fair sex. The trouble arose Easter morning when the weather became just as nasty and contrary as it could be. In every home in Tonopah, where one of the fair sex resides, a handsome Easter bonnet, and in some places two or three, had been purchased. It was the one desire of owners to wear the aforesaid piece of headgear to the morning services at the different churches, and of course the wearer would be privileged to cast a few disdainful glances at the less expensive creations as worn by her sisters in the parade.

But the weather had to spoil everything and the churchgoers appeared on the streets wearing their everyday bonnet. Just about the time that the procession was scheduled to start, it commenced snowing. Then it hailed. More snow and more hail. The wind throughout blew a hurricane and was beautifully punctuated with additional decoctions of snow and hail. However, the Easter parade has not been postponed, and should next Sunday be bright and fair, the original procession of Chanticleer head coverings can be observed and following that, the new hat will be here to stay.

McDANN WAS UP TO HIS OLD TRICKS

The following from the Las Vegas Age refers to the George McDann who served a six months' sentence in the county jail, after being convicted of stealing two grips from the Mizpah hotel. McDann's record was furnished the Las Vegas officials by the local police and it is probable that he received a sentence more severe than a "float." The article from the southern paper follows:

George McDann, alleged burglar, said to have served time for robbery of postoffices in various states, has been apprehended in Las Vegas and is being held in detinue. Skeleton keys and other paraphernalia were found on the man, including a handsome gold watch, which is being held for identification. He is supposed to have come to Vegas from Tonopah, and has served time in Nevada. So far as known there is no reward for his capture, but he will likely be given a "float," at the first hearing before Judge Lillis.

COON MASCOT OF FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETS HIS DEATH

PET OF THE LADDIES IS KILLED WHEN CAUGHT STEALING CHICKENS.

"Bob," the coon pet of the fire department is no more. The animal that generally accompanied the wagon during the midday exercise drives, has taken his last free ride on this earth, and the next time he goes skipping over the ground will be in a chariot in coon heaven. The pet was presented to the fire boys a number of months ago by Mrs. Fred Corkill, who brought him from California. Bob took to the life of a fireman like a fish takes to water and made himself right at home at the firehouse.

About a week ago it was decided that Bob was in love with his home and there was no necessity for keeping him chained up. The fetters were cast to one side and the animal pursued his every day life without variation. However, yesterday morning Bob was missing, and no tidings could be heard from him.

Last night about 10 o'clock there was a big commotion in the chicken house belonging to Jack Hall. One of the employees, armed with a 22 caliber rifle went out to investigate. He suddenly stopped when he saw two glaring eyes shining out of the darkness. A hasty sight was taken with the rifle, and a second later Bob was taking his flight towards some distant land. The bullet had entered square between the eyes.

Investigation disclosed the fact that thirty chickens had been killed while forty pair of squabs were also counted among the deceased. Bob had taken advantage of every moment spent in the chicken house.

A big chicken and squab mulligan is scheduled at the H. J. Hall Liquor company sometime this evening, while choice coon steaks will be served those who prefer the tempting dish.

SPURNED BY WIDOW NEVADAN KILLS HIMSELF

OAKLAND, PAPER GIVES BRIEF ACCOUNT OF DECKER SUICIDE.

The Oakland Tribune of Saturday evening has the following to say about the suicide of Walter Decker, who killed himself in that city Friday evening, following a disagreement with Birdie Kelly, a young woman with whom he was infatuated. The note left by Decker, bidding the girl he loved, a fond goodbye, which was printed exclusively in the Bonanza Sunday morning, also appears in the Tribune article:

"Spurned by a dashing young widow, to whom he has been paying attentions for some time past, and despondent over a shortage of funds, Walter Decker, son of a wealthy brewer of Carson City, Nevada, shot himself in Harrison square last evening, within full view of the house of the object of his affections, Miss Berde Specht, of 1007 Harrison street. In a note found in his pocket the suicide revealed a plan to kill both himself and the girl, one evening last week. His plans were frustrated, however, when she failed to keep the appointment. Miss Specht says she has not seen Decker since last Tuesday.

Pawn tickets showed that Decker had obtained $27.50 on a gold watch and $2.75 on a pair of cuff links.

EXPIRES FROM WOUND INFLECTED BY AN INDIAN

W. P. BAKER DIES AT COUNTY HOSPITAL EARLY SUNDAY MORNING.

William Patrick Baker, who was shot at Spanish Springs about a month ago by an Indian named Tang Darrow, died at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Baker was brought to Tonopah about two weeks ago and placed in the county hospital. Peritonitis developed in the wound in the hip, and resulted in his death.

A coroner's jury was empaneled yesterday afternoon by acting coroner, H. H. Atkinson, and the verdict rendered in accordance with the statement of the county physician. Baker was aged about forty-four years and was a native of Canada.

Darrow, the gun wielder, escaped after wounding Baker, and has not been apprehended. He appeared in Round Mountain several days afterwards, and at one time was reported to be in Tonopah. In the northern camp no effort was made to place him under arrest. Parties who are acquainted with the Indian are of the opinion that he has remained in the country and is sheltered by fellow members of the tribe. His home is in the Hot Creek district.

ATTEMPTS TO EMULATE BADMAN; IS ARRESTED

HABIT OF BRANDISHING GUN RESULTS DISASTROUSLY FOR ENGLISHMAN.

George Moore, the Englishman, who gained fame a few months ago by engaging in a one round bout with the eagle that was in captivity back of the fire house, said bout resulting in a victory for the bird of freedom, was arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Malley, on a complaint charging him with brandishing a weapon in a rude, angry and threatening manner.

It appears that Moore, while intoxicated, terrorized the neighborhood in the vicinity of Oddie avenue and Water street, by appearing on the thoroughfare and brandishing a revolver. He went through the performance Sunday morning, unmolested, but when he attempted to execute the same war dance yesterday, the neighbors objected and swore to a complaint. The hearing will take place today in the justice court.

BANK CASHIER FEARED WRATH OF ANGRY MINERS

F. H. STICKNEY DEPARTS FROM RHYOLITE WHEN VIOLENCE WAS THREATENED.

F. H. Stickney, who at the time of the closing of the First National bank of Rhyolite, occupied the position of cashier of that institution, silently folded his tent last Thursday and departed for parts unknown.

The attitude of the miners in the Rhyolite district, who had their savings on deposit in the bank, was not to Mr. Stickney's liking, and it is evident that he greatly feared their wrath. Anyway he departed without indulging in adieus, and now the people of Rhyolite are seeking him in other pastures. It was rumored that Stickney went to Reno, but late advices received from the south section of this county states that it was impossible to locate the missing cashier in the northern town.
